FILES A BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT

Miss Anna B. Stites of Near Henderson Brings Action Against Samuel M. Denton.

DEMANDS DAMAGES OF $5,000

She Alleges That Carthage Druggist Promised to Marry Her October 2, 1910—of Marriageable Age.

Miss Anna B. Stites, of near Henderson, through her attorney, Howard E. Barrett, filed a breach of promise suit in the circuit court against Samuel M. Denton, a druggist of Carthage, this morning in which she demands damages in the sum of $5,000.

The complaint is very brief and to the point, stating that on October 2, 1910 the defendant agreed to marry Miss Stites and at that time she was over eighteen years old, the lawful age at which persons may marry in Indiana.

The complaint state that ever since October 2, 1910 she has been reay and willing to marry him in pursuance of her promise and alleges that on numerous occasions since October 2, 1910 she has requested Mr. Denton to fulfill his promise to marry her, but he has always refused.

Miss Stites states that because of his refusal to marry her she has suffered great mental anguish and on account thereof in the sum of $5,000, which is demanded in the complaint. Both parties are well known in the northern part of the county.

Mr. Denton has been in the drug business in Carthage for a number of years and owns a half interest in a store there. Miss Stites is the daughter of "Daddy" Stites and has lived near Henderson all her life.

The case has been set for trial May 18, but it is hardly likely that it will be tried at that time.

RESIGNS PLACE IN HIGH SCHOOL

Paul E. Johnson, Instructor in Mathematics, Will Complete Master Degree in Hiram College

SECOND TO QUIT THIS YEAR

Paul E. Johnson, instructor in mathematics in the local high school has tendered his resignation to the school board to take effect at the close of the school year. Mr. Johnson has accepted a position as instructor in Hiram College, Hiram, Ohio, and while there will complete his master degree. While here Mr. Johnson has been in the mathematics department, but at Hiram will major in chemistry. He graduated from Hiram last spring and came here last fall at the opening of the school year. While here Mr. Johnson has made many friends, who regret to see him leave, but are glad that his new position comes as an advancement. His home is in Hiram, Ohio. The position he has at Hiram is similar to that of O. L. Raber at Harvard University.

Prof. Joanson is the second member of the high school faculty to announce his resignation. Prof. Raber only a few days ago sent his resignation to the board.

MOTHERS OF LAND TO BE REMEMBERED

Day Will be Celebrated Here Next Sunday by Churches and With the Wearing of Carnations.

FLORISTS EXPECT BIG TRADE

Mothers of the United States will be honored Sunday, for that will be the universal Mothers Day. Thousands of carnations will be worn then in commemoration of the day and florists are preparing for a big trade.

The churches of the city will officially recognize the day. All of the ministers will preach a special sermon on the topic. Most of them are announced for the morning service. This has been the custom of the churches here since the day was generally celebrated.

"No man can approximate his indebtedness to his mother," wrote Governor Ralston in his proclamation setting aside May 10 as Mothers' Day. "She makes sacrifices for him that none other would make. Her loyalty to him is past understanding. She is the anchor to which he clings when the storms of life dash him against the rocks of misfortune. She is the dominant factor of the home and is the strength of the nation. Her love is the philosophy that shapes the destiny of men."

USE OF SCHOOL HOUSE GRANTED

School Board Tells Association Committee They May Take Advantage of New Building.

OUTSIDE OF SCHOOL HOURS

Plans Are Immature. But Association Will Utilize This Excellent Opportunity.

Unanimous consent was given by the school board last evening to a large committee from the Rushville Civic Improvement and Social Service association to use the proposed school building, which is to be erected this summer on the east end of the Graham school ground, for whatever purpose they saw fit.

No disagreement arose during the whole evening and the views of both the school trustees and the committee were in perfect accord on the question. The school board set down one provision which the committee readily consented to. It was that the association should pay for light and fuel whenever it was required in addition to that necessary to heat and light the building for school purposes.

"We feel very grateful to the school board," said a member of the committee this morning. "We believe that the opportunity that now confronts us gives us a chance to make the association a really big factor in the life of the city. It was very nice of the school board to tender us the right to use the building and we will put it to good advantage."

The association has worked out no plans for the future, with the exception of some tentative ones which have been suggested, but which have not been acted on. A satisfactory arrangement will have been worked out, however, by the time the building is completed next fall.

One of the first things thought of by the women members of the association was the use of the equipment in the domestic science room after school hours. It is felt that girls of high school age whose parents can not afford to send them to school might get advantage of a course the equal of that taught in the high school through the effort of the association to give a night course.

The association also believes now that the gymnasium could be put to excellent advantage for the use of factory and mill men, as well as boys and girls who are unable to attend high school. Gymnasium classes could be formed for stated evenings. The shower baths which will be installed will be very fine for this, it is pointed out.

Perhaps one of the class rooms in the south half of the building may be so fitted up for a meeting place for mothers and fathers, the association has been told, because it is likely that not all of the rooms in the new building will be used next year at least. In the afternoon meetings might be held in this room.

SERVICES AT U. P. CHURCH.

The G. A. R. memorial service will be held in the United Presbyterian church Sunday, May 24. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. A. W. Jamieson. The members of the G. A. R. will meet at the court house at nine-thirty o'clock that morning and march to the church in a body.

Chile will raise $10,219,650 this year for improvements on state railroads and $22,921,215 for betterments will be raised in the next five years.

DISCOURAGED, TRIES SUICIDE

Gleta Wolf, Until Recently a Resident of This City, Drinks Poison at Cincinnati.

RENA PEA TELLS THE STORY

Gleta Says No One Will Even Know Why and Destroys Letters She Had Written.

Miss Gleta Wolf, until eight weeks ago a resident of this city, attempted suicide in Cincinnati Tuesday night by drinking poison. She was taken to the city hospital and will recover. Miss Wolf accompanied by Rena Pea, went to Cincinnati from this city. They left here suddenly and nothing had been heard from the two until the story of the attempted suicide appeared in a Cincinnati paper.

According to the story told the police by Rena Pea, her roommate, the girls were working in a laundry and when the Wolf girl quit her place both lived off the wages received by Miss Pea.

"Gleta was not satisfied," Miss Pea told the police. "I was doing all I could to help her, but she could not have clothes like other girls and became discouraged. She received a letter from home yesterday. We quarreled because I objected to the company she kept. She waited until I was ready to retire and then walked into the pantry, which adjoins our room. I followed and saw her drink something from a glass. She rushed past me and fell over on the bed. I called the police and they said she had taken poison."

The Cincinnati Enquirer this morning had the following concerning the case, stating that the Wolfe girl was formerly of Brookville and that the Pea girl went under the name of Rena Pase.

"No one will ever know why I took poison. I wrote several letters explaining my reasons, but I recovered and destroyed them when I returned home. Some reporters who posed as detectives failed to find them, thank goodness. The reporters said that I tried to commit suicide because I could not live on $6 a week. I have seven brothers, who do not let me suffer for anything, so you can see that that was not my reason."

Gleta Wolf, 19, formerly of Brookville, Ind., sat in her room at 626 West Eighth street yesterday afternoon and calmly discussed her attempt to end her life by swallowing poison during the morning. She had a quantity of the deadly drug, which appeared to be paris green, on her mantel, and she and her roommate, who had found her unconscious while it was still dark, joked as they showed the stuff to an Enquirer representative.

Rena Pase, the Wolf girl's roommate, admits that the name she used is fictitious. She said that she came to Cincinnati from Chicago about a week ago, and denied that she had quarreled with her companion. She contemplates leaving the city at once. Both young women worked in a laundry. Hospital physicians say that the Wolf girl narrowly escaped death.

NAME IS CHANGED.

There was nothing of very great importance in the circuit court today. A divorce case was to have been tried but was postponed. Judge Megee heard the petition of Mary G. Schrader in which she asked that her name be changed. Judge Megee found that she was entitled to have her name changed from Schrader to Mary E. Gray.

LOOKS LIKE ANOTHER TRIAL

Jury Got Blakemon-McCann Case Last Night Still Out.

(By United Press.)

Columbus, Ind., May 7.—The case of William Blakemon against Marion McCann, for ten thousand dollars damages, charging malicious prosecution and false imprisonment, went to the jury in the circuit court last night at eight o'clock, but this afternoon late the jury had not yet returned a verdict. The jury disagreed the first time the case was tried here. It was sent to Bartholomew county on a change of venue from Rush county.

WILL BE SENT TO JURY BY TONIGHT

Judge Fortune Announces He Will Hold Court Until Argument in Roberts Case Ends.

EPH. INMAN ARRAIGNS ROPER

(By United Press.)

Terre Haute, Ind., May 7.—Before court adjourned tonight the case of Mayor Donn Roberts, charged with election frauds, will be in the hands of the jury. This was the statement of Judge Fortune when court convened at 9 A. M. today.

"If Donn Roberts is a criminal then I know others who ought to have been in hell a thousand years ago," said Eph. Inman, making the final argument for the defense this afternoon.

Roberts should not be convicted on the testimony of confessed liars, such as John Roper, who is a reptile, so scorned that women and children on the streets turn away their eyes in disgust and walk around him."

Roper turned state's evidence against Roberts after he had been indicted on the same charge as the mayor.

This was Prediction of Prominent Refugees Arriving in Vera Cruz from Capitol Today.

HIS POWER DISINTEGRATES

BY WILLIAM SHEPHERD

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Vera Cruz, May 7.—The disintegration of the Huerta government within two weeks was predicted by foreigners arriving from Mexico City today. Stories of the waning power of the dictator are pouring into Vera Cruz. One prominent refugee said today:

"We believe the United States will get knee deep in mediation only to discover that Huerta has lost his power to bargain for Mexico."

PUBLIC INTOXICATION.

Frank Whitaker of near New Salem was arrested this afternoon by Chief Rosencranse and was placed in jail in an intoxicated condition. He will be given a hearing tonight by Mayor Bebout.

THREE ANNOUNCE RETURN TO PARTY

Vermillion, Vigo and Hendricks County Men Give Reasons for Coming Back to Republicans

PLATFORM MADE GREAT HIT

One Says Progressive Party is Simply Big Asset to Democrats and he Left it.

[Special to the Daily Republican.]

Indianapolis, May 7.—Three letters were received at the Republican State Headquarters at the Hotel Severin this morning from Progressives, in which they announced their return to the Republican party, and gave reasons for their political course.

"From the large number of voluntary expressions that have come into this office from voters who were not affiliated with the Republican party in 1912, announcing their return to the Republican camp," said a member of the Republican State Committee, "it is evident that the ticket nominated by the recent Republican State Convention and the platform adopted have made a great hit with the voters of Indiana."

The three letters, one from Vermillion County, one from Vigo County, and one from Hendricks County, follow.

"L. F. Wright, of Clinton, who was one of the Progressive leaders in Vermillion County in 1912, writes as follows:

"When I saw that the Progressive party was proving simply a big asset to the Democratic party, I left it. When the split came, after the Chicago convention, I followed Roosevelt and I think thousands of the best Republicans in the country did likewise. But I am now like thousands of others, in not wanting to help the party we have always opposed. We former Progressives are still progressives but we can do the best for the country by helping to make the Republican party still stronger as a party of progress. All the country's real progress has been made under this party and I am as strong for it today as ever."

Herman Grouf, a Terre Haute business man who affiliated with the Progressive party in 1912, says:

"The best interests of Indiana and the United States demand that all who believe in the policy of protection for American homes and American industries unite in a solid opposition to the Democratic party, which is again demonstrating conclusively that its governmental policies do not

TWO MEN KILLED AT KNIGHTSTOWN

Employees of Pennsylvania Railroad Struck by Limited While Inspecting Signal Work.

ARE CONFUSED BY FREIGHT

Bodies Are Thrown Over a Hundred Feet and Both Are Horribly Mutilated by Wheels.

Knightstown, Ind., May 7.—C. W. Cobb, age 30, of Piqua, O., and Lark Kebbel, age 25, of Caneville, Ky., were both instantly killed yesterday when struck by the Pennsylvania New York to St. Louis limited which is due here at 11:26. The speed at which the train was going at the time is estimated at 75 miles an hour. It did not stop and evidently the crew was unaware that a tragedy had occurred.

The two men were walking west along the track inspecting the signal work. Cobb was a signal foreman and Kebbel a signal repairman. Frank Vorhis of Centerville, who formerly worked as foreman for the Pennsylvania railroad, and who was recently transferred to Piqua, was instructing the two men in their duties.

The men were on the high grade and Vorhis was down the embankment. A freight train was coming west and it is presumed that the men did not hear the limited back of them.

The train knocked the bodies of the men over a hundred feet. One man was cut in two and both were cut beyond recognition.

The bodies of the men were taken to Baxter's undertaking establishment and Coroner Weaver called. Cobb is married and Kebbel is single.

RAINS BENEFIT GROWING CROPS

Farmers Are Pleased With Recent Showers, Declaring That They Came at Opportune Time.

NO INJURY TO THE BLOSSOMS

Crop Conditions Throughout State Are Encouraged and Big Wheat Harvest is Predicted.

The rule is that Rush county farmers are rejoicing over the recent rains. They declare they were very beneficial to the growing crops. While some of the showers were heavy the blossoms on the fruit trees were not damaged seriously. It was feared that the heavy rain might knock them off the trees or damage them.

Orchardists are exceptionally well pleased with the outlook for the fruit crop. The buds are now far enough advanced so that there is less danger of insects affecting them and many of the orchardists have taken precaution by spraying.

Those who keep in touch with the developments of the wheat say that the fields are looking fine and indications are highly favorable for a bumper crop. A large acreage was sown last fall and the winter months were favorable. In Rush county corn planting has started and will keep the farmers busy for several weeks. Much of the ground is in readiness for the seed. It is reported that the hay crop promises to be lighter this year than usual which is an indication that the price will advance accordingly.

Crop conditions throughout Indiana the first few days of May as nearly approach a condition of perfection, crop experts state, as is possible. Reports from every section of the state indicate that winter wheat has attained a stand never before equaled at this time, that the outlook for spring wheat is also bright, while corn prospects were never better and the fruit bids fair to assume bumper proportions. In the last Federal crop report Indiana was given a higher grade on winter wheat than it has had in years and there is every reason to believe that the next crop report will show even greater possibilities.

The floods experienced last spring, to the dismay of the farmer, have been absent this season. Abundant moisture has fallen when and where needed, and as the winter wheat emerged from the winter months with an excellent growth, nothing has happened in Indiana to halt the plant's advancement. The acreage this season devoted to wheat and corn will net a huge increase compared with former years. It is claimed that there are 3,000,000 acres more wheat land in cultivation in the United States this season than ever before, proportion to the increase. Corn acreage is also to be larger, and corn planting is well under way in several localities, in fact has been about completed in places where more favorable conditions existed.

If You Were Indicted for Murder===

would you care to be tried before a jury whose minds were on other affairs and who would not listen to your testimony? The chances are you would want men who would give their whole attention to your case. You may never be tried for murder but the same proposition applies to every business transaction you make. When you want to buy an article go to the man that specializes that article. Now for instance if you need a vehicle of any kind—that is where I ring in. That is why I can give you better vehicle values, better styles and better service. My whole time and attention is centered on one thing. Every day in the year, Mr. Vehicle Buyer, I am working to obtain better prices and better style for you to make your selections from. Place your business with a man who creates new styles and is working at the business every day to give you satisfaction. I want your vehicle business and don't you think it is a better proposition to place it with me than with some one that is selling buggies as a side issue?

The validity of state censorship of motion pictures has just been upheld in a decision handed down in Cleveland, O., by three judges sitting in the United States district court for the northern district of Ohio, eastern division, in the test case brought by the Mutual Film corporation against the Ohio board of censors.

The Hanlon brothers' celebrated extravaganza, "Fantasma," which was played in every town in the country that boasts a theater, has been filmed. The fantastic effects and trick scenes lend themselves to perfect photographic reproduction.

"The Wiles of a Siren" is a fine drama featuring Carlyle Blackwell. The photography is clear, and the light effects are good. There are a few bad spots in the film, but they are few and far between.

SCENE FROM "SEEDS OF CHAOS."

"Seeds of Chaos" is a twentieth century photo drama founded on circumstantial evidence. Richard Morgan, John Booth's employer, appropriates a certain amount of money from the firm of Morgan & Co., and in order to escape the penalty places the blame upon Booth. Exciting complications follow. This production is booked for release May 1.

"The Cabby's Nightmare" is a comedy in which a cabby who mistreats his horse has a nightmare, in which the horse mistreats him. When he wakes up he resolves to be good to his four footed friend in the future. On the same reel with "Bobby," "Some Spiritualist."

Virginia Pearson has been secured to work in pictures, the first to be "The Stain." Miss Pearson appeared as the Vampire with Robert Hilliard in "A Fool There Was," which had a long run on the stage.

"The Hunted Animal" is a wonderful mystery story, featuring Marc McDermott. The scenes are laid on the Long Island sound. John Perrittan takes the guilt of his fiancée's brother upon himself, and in escaping is forced to dive in the icy current. In a bundle he finds clothes and directions which lead him to a farmhouse, whence he goes in a trunk to a Chinaman's den. His fate is not disclosed in the dimming of the reel.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Main Street Christian church observed Guest Day, on Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. D. H. Dean, about one hundred ladies were in attendance. A unique program was furnished by the officers of the society. After several musical numbers by Mrs. Clarence Walden and Mrs. Will Amos a guessing contest was conducted by Mrs. G. P. McCarty. The questions pertained to the various modes of work, done by the Christian Woman's Board of Missions. The guests were then invited to take a journey to the different heathen countries where missionary work is carried on. Curious from each country were exhibited, and the house was beautifully decorated with flags of all nations, and spring flowers. The dining room was especially attractive with cherry blossoms and Japanese lanterns. Here Mrs. Kiesling gave a short talk on the customs of the Japanese while the Misses Gronier and Wyatt served dainty refreshments, in costume. Mrs. Coleman had charge of the exhibit from the Philippines, Mrs. Roy Waggener, India; Mrs. Robert Kennedy, Africa; Mrs. Clawson, China; and Mrs. Albert Allen, Tibet.

A Weak Excuse

In practically every election, primary and registration in the United States since the 1912 presidential election, the Progressive party vote has shown a large falling off. But there are still a few Progressive newspapers which refuse to see the handwriting. The Indianapolis Star is one of these.

According to the best estimates, there are only approximately 2,000 Progressive votes cast in the Marion county primary Tuesday. The Star has to bolster up some sort of an excuse, and the one it presents this morning is so weak and senseless that it is ridiculous. It is reproduced in full as follows:

With few contests for nominations, the Progressive vote in the county primary was light.

But it was sufficiently generous to indicate that there is a large following of party members deeply enough interested in Progressive solidarity and Progressive principles to visit the polls and stand in line, in many instances for more than half an hour, for the opportunity to show their affiliation.

So far as the Progressive total is concerned, it proves conclusively that the party is not one of politicians, as are the old parties. Politicians make it their business to "get out the vote."

The vote of the Progressive party was registered without any of the entreaties that marked the election day industry of old party workers.

The Same Man.

Congressman Gray, who is on the naval committee, proposes to make a fight to have the government manufacture its own armor plate. At one time the government had a plant, but it was abandoned several years ago. Mr. Gray claims that if the plant had been kept in operation it would have saved the United States treasury $30,000,000.—Newcastle Times.

Mr. Gray is great on figures. He is the same man who a few years ago put himself on record as saying that a new water plant could be put in by Connorsville and fully equipped for $20,000. That was just before an election, also. Connorsville News.

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About*New Zealand Butter.

(Muncie Press.)

The Indianapolis News, consistently with its free trade attitude, rejoices over the opportunity to buy New Zealand butter on the Indianapolis market. The Indianapolis News gets its own income from the people of the United States, especially of Indiana, but it would evidently prefer to spend its money in New Zealand than with the housewives of Hoosierdom, its butter can be produced more cheaply on the cheap lands of that far off British dependency than in the valleys and hills of our own state. It would prefer to buy eggs of a Chinese coolie rather than the product of the Indiana hen house. The Indianapolis News is entirely willing to make its own profits off the people of Indiana, but it is glad to have the people who make its prosperity possible undersold by the peasants, coolies and peons of foreign lands. This is because the Indianapolis News is a free trader. Free trade is a disease usually acquired during the sophomore year at college. The News has a hopeless case of long standing. This is what the News recently had to say on the inspiring topic "Butter From New Zealand."

"The appearance of New Zealand butter on the retail markets of Indianapolis shows to what straits our dairy business has been brought. The decline in the production of dairy and beef products has been one of the factors in the phenomenal increase in prices. This burden was made heavier by a protective tariff which practically excluded such food importations. The reduction of duties has thus made it possible for the creameries of New Zealand, Siberia, Australia and Denmark to send butter to the United States, and for the slaughter houses of Australia and the Argentine to endeavor to make up the grave deficiency in the meat trade. The shipment of New Zealand butter, which has just reached Indianapolis, came from an interior point in that distant dominion. It was frozen in Auckland and came a whole ship load—to the United States. The cargo was billed to San Francisco, and at that point a portion was transhipped and sent by rail to this city.

"The wonder is not that butter could be sent more than 8000 miles by land and sea and reach its destination in excellent condition, but that it could be transported such a long distance and still be sold at a price lower than the domestic quotation. The New Zealand butter is said to score 92 to 93 points. It is grass butter—this season being the New Zealand summer—and is sweet and rich to the taste. The butter will bring perhaps a few cents less a pound than the high-grade Indiana creamery, produced within fifty miles of Indianapolis. It is estimated that the cost of transportation will average 1 cent a pound from New Zealand to San Francisco and 2 cents a pound from San Francisco to Indianapolis, overland freight being much higher than water freight. If the present shipment is well received it is probable that Indianapolis will continue to have shipments from New Zealand.

"The New Zealand sample contained much less salt than the average American butter of the same scoring. And yet the New Zealand butter kept fresh during the prolonged journey. We must increase our output if we are to become independent once more of foreign producers. Much of this native product must be improved in quality."

Of course New Zealand butter tastes sweeter and richer to the Indianapolis News than Indiana butter, especially if it has the British jack printed on the wrapper. But how does this talk taste to the Indiana farmer? The farmer whom the Indianapolis News used to tell got no benefit from the protective tariff, but is now informed by the same oracle was really protected "by a tariff which practically excluded such food importations?" The farmer who doesn't like it knows what he can do. So does the wage earner whose benefit from these importations consists in the printed information that the middleman has been given a little more margin of profit, while he has lost his job, is working on part time, has his wages reduced, or fears that he will suffer the fate that has befallen millions of his fellows. The man out of a job is glad to know that New Zealand butter is "sweet and rich." It will give the grocery store a better odor and he can walk by and smell it for nothing.

AS a nation we are exceedingly sensitive about the Monroe doctrine, the indefinite claims of which are always a source of possible international difficulty. The Monroe doctrine is a CLAIM OF MUCH VAGUENESS AND MANY DANGEROUS POSSIBILITIES, a claim that should be exercised with much discretion until more keenly defined. It is exceedingly unpopular with all nations in South America, who naturally do not relish our PLAYING THE BIG POLICEMAN without their consent.

NOR DO SOME OF THE GREAT POWERS LIKE OUR STANDING IN THE WAY OF THEIR COLONIAL AMBITIONS. AS THEY BECOME MORE THICKLY POPULATED, THE NATIONAL LAND HUNGER WILL INCREASE, AND THE OVERFLOW OF THE POPULATION MAY SEEK NEW FIELDS IN SOUTH AMERICA. SUCH A DEVELOPMENT IS OF MUCH ECONOMIC IMPORTANCE TO THE UNITED STATES. HENCE THE NECESSITY OF AN INTERPRETATION OF THE MONROE DOCTRINE WHICH WILL ENCOURAGE AND NOT DISCOURAGE THE COMMERCIAL GROWTH OF THAT VAST AND RICH TERRITORY.

work to the general satisfaction and welfare of the people. I was a Progressive in 1912 but I am like unnumbered thousands who, in voicing a protest, did not forsake the cardinal principles of the Republican party. The Republican party has responded promptly to public demand. The national committee readily corrected the Southern representation plan and the rank and file in Indiana had their say in the selection of the Republican State Committee with the result that no political party in the history of Indiana ever had a more representative and more progressive organization than the Republicans of Indiana have now. Political and commercial conditions throughout the country are working to the advantage of the Republican party. Personalities are being lost sight of and Progressive Republicans and disgusted Democrats are centering their minds on ways to restore the country to the wide-spread prosperity that it has always enjoyed when the government was guided by the Republican party."

T. G. Vaughan, of Amo, a Progressive two years ago, writes as follows:

"As a Republican who voted for Roosevelt in 1912, I want to voice the sentiment of those who believe in getting together under the Eagle and fighting the Democratic party. I voted against Taft because of his free trade policy with Canada. I am a believer in the policies of the Republican party, that has built this country to what it is. I as a farmer who believes in protection."

ST. LOUIS FEDS ARE SURPRISE

If Mordecai Brown's Team Should Cop Pennant There Would be Another Bucket of Dope Spilled.

WOULD BE FIRST FOR CITY

Giants Have Man Sized Job on Hands in Beating Pittsburgh Out in National League.

(BY HAL SHERIDAN.)
(Written for United Press.)

New York, May 7.—If Mordecai Brown's St. Louis Feders should happen to cop the Federal League Pennant there would be another badly spilled bucket of dope to scoop up. Breezing through April the former Chicago Cub pitcher carried his club along to the top of the heap, being walloped for but one out of the first nine games. That is hardly more than out from under fight shadow of the wire, but should the team hold up and continue the fight through July and August, a new line of excuses for the Browns and Cardinals may be necessary. Should Brown deliver it will also be the first pennant ever won by St. Louis.

Turning back the pages it will be found that Cincinnati, Philadelphia and St. Louis have yet to put over a winner in the National League. New York, Cleveland, Washington and St. Louis have never won a pennant in the American League. That puts it on St. Louis twice.

Philadelphia has won the pennant in the American League five times, Chicago, Boston and Detroit have each copped three. Chicago is the big winner in the National League, having grabbed off ten flags. Boston has eight to its credit, New York seven, Pittsburgh four, Brooklyn three, and in the old line up Baltimore three, Providence two and Detroit one.

It has always been more or less of a mystery why the St. Louis teams have usually been able to start the season in good shape and then die away. The Cardinals under Bresnahan rushed away one year in good shape as though they might chew up the entire universe. Then as the weeks wore on the hot days arrived the Cards curled up, shriveled, cracked and split wide open as they slid down the column.

Explanations as long as the history of Babylon have been made of this annual trip down the chutes taken by St. Louis teams. The weather of St. Louis is held responsible by some dopsters. And some of the St.

Louis players are said to have declared that as the thermometer climbs in their home town and the humidity humids, all pep slowly oozes away and there is nothing left but nine shells which perspire through the motions of ball playing, while teams of the northern cities are cavorting at top speed and slathering the ball to all corners of the lot.

If Brown has collected an aggregation of tropical wonders for his St. Louis Feders he may count on being among the leaders when the final bell rings. If he has just ordinary human beings who do not do their training on the equator, there will have to be a new line of dope figured for the Browns and Cardinals.

It has been pretty clearly indicated that the Giants have a man sized job on hand in beating out the Pittsburgh Pirates for the National League pennant.

In the first place, the Pirates have gotten into action from the start. Heretofore they have hesitated and flattered before striking their real battle stride. The Giants were the slow starters this year and should Fred Clark's men hold their gait, it will be a long, hard chase to the finish this year which had been a bug-a-boo for years. That is at first base.

By acquiring Koney from St. Louis Cardinals the Pirates solved their ancient problem for the Big Train stacks up with the best of them when it comes to first basing. Wagoner is going as of old, fielding as only Wagner can field, and slaying the ball as only the famous Dutchman can slay it.

McGraw has introduced movies to show the Giants mistakes they make and improve the general playing of the team. But there is one picture that will not be shown. That is a "movie" of Frank Baker in action. McGraw wants to win a fourth pennant, but with a daily reminder of Baker and his bat there would be no need of expecting a driving finish. What's the use of winning a pennant and then face shots of Baker and other members of the Mack artillery in the World's Series?

Track sharps of the East are about ready to admit now that Howard Drew really did run 100 yards in 9 3/5. Under the colors of the University of Southern California, Drew ran one of his heats at the Pennsylvania relay carnival in ten flat. The track was heavy and a steady rain was falling. Drew was also far ahead of his field and eased up before the finish, crossing the line hands down. Under good conditions there was no telling how fast Drew might tear off a hundred. He may be expected to repeat his 9 3/5 before the season closes.

Villa, the Man Behind the Gun Among the Mexican Rebels

GENERAL VILLA, whose successes in the north of Mexico are believed to have led Huerta to seek war with the United States as a last recourse to bolster up his fading reputation with his people, is here seen aiming one of his up to date rapid fire guns. After the United States lifted the embargo from the exportation of arms and ammunition Villa secured many of these modern death dealers.

PREPARE TO FIRE NEW BROADSIDE

Crusaders Against "White Plague" in Indiana Announce Campaign on Chautauqua Platform.

FIRST GUN BE FIRED JULY 1

Addresses on Topic Will be Heard at Carthage and Milroy.—Contributions Are Requested.

(Special to the Daily Republican)

Indianapolis, May 7.—Crusaders against the "white plague" in Indiana are preparing to fire a broadside from an unexpected quarter at General Tubercle Bacillus and his army, according to an announcement made here today.

The first gun from this new battery will be touched off at Kentland, Indiana on the afternoon of July 1 and then in rapid succession detonations will be heard at Kewana, Bourbon, Lake Wawasee, Pendleton, Carthage, Milroy, Greenwood, Williamsport, Flora, Kirklint Colfax, Rossville, Westfield, Arcadia, Fortville, Fairmont, Hagerstown, Greentown, Montpelier, Mentone and Dunkirk.

Through an arrangement which has been made by the Indiana Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis and the central Chautauqua system, time has been provided on the chautauqua programs arranged for the above mentioned communities. Realizing the great need for additional enlightenment of the public regarding tuberculosis, the managers of the chautauqua circuit proposed to the state anti-tuberculosis society that lecturers be provided for the afternoon of the second day's program and a schedule is now being perfected by which the appointments will be filled.

Despite the great handicap of lack of sufficient funds to carry on the work, officers of the Indiana Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, said today that a campaign of education and publicity will be carried on throughout the summer. Efforts are now being made to enlist the support of hundreds of business and professional men in Indiana to the end that funds sufficient to continue the work of the society will be forthcoming. Any public spirited man or woman in Rush county who may desire to help in this work may send remittances in any amount to the headquarters of the state society, 203 Public Savings Insurance Bldg. Indianapolis. Make all checks and money orders payable to James W. Lilly, Treasurer.

FORGOT TO THROW AUTO OUT OF GEAR

SPINAL COLUMN FRACTURED

As Result James L. Hill of Indianapolis Lies at Home of Frank Cotton Critically Hurt.

James L. Hill, age forty-three years, a wealthy real estate dealer and former manufacturer of silos, of Indianapolis, lies in a critical condition at the home of Frank Cotton near Manilla with a fractured vertebrae of his spinal column as the result of an accident while cranking his automobile about four o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Hill is the son of George W. Hill of Shelby county and was motoring in Union township, Shelby county, just west of Manilla, yesterday afternoon with C. H. Topping of Chicago. As he started to drive across Little Blue River, the engine of the car went "dead." Mr. Hill forgot to throw his machine out of gear, and when he cranked the engine, the auto ran over him and severely crushed him.

One of the lower vertebra was fractured, but the attending physician believes the fracture may not have caused any permanent injury to the spinal cord. It will be inadvisable to move him for some time.

To Mark Marriage of Miss Eleanor Wilson to William G. McAdoo, Secretary of Treasury

14th WHITE HOUSE WEDDING
To Take Place in Blue Room and Witnessed by Only Immediate Family and Friends

(By United Press.)

Washington, May 7.—Despite efforts to make the fourteenth White House wedding the simplest of ceremonies, only two things were missing. They were the presence of the Diplomatic corps, army and navy and the use of the blue room instead of the famous gilded east room.

Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, youngest daughter of the President, was to marry William Gibbs McAdoo, secretary of the treasury. Only members of the immediate family of the bride and the groom and McAdoo's colleagues in the cabinet with the Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall were to be present.

The word "obey" will not be eliminated from the marriage service, the Rev. Sylvester Beach said today.

There was none of the pomp and ceremony which attended the marriage last November of Miss Jessie Wilson to Frances Bowes Sayer. The fact that the groom was a widower influenced this decision.

The ceremony was to take place today in the Blue Room, where Miss Francis Polson was wedded to President Cleveland. The nuptials to be almost identical with those of the Cleveland wedding. It too, was a private affair, with only a dozen or so invited guests.

President and Mrs. Wilson have always maintained that the affairs of the womanfolk of the White House were not public business and so up until today practically no information was given out as to the wedding. Secretary McAdoo, the groom, is 51 years of age. He has six children living and one grandchild. Miss Wilson is 24 years old. She is the most vivacious of the President's three daughters. She first met Secretary McAdoo while he was acting chairman of the Democratic National Committee and came to the "summer White House" at Sea Girt to confer with the then Democratic presidential candidate.

Both Miss Wilson and McAdoo had much in common. Both were fond of Tennis. They enjoyed dancing the new style dances. Their acquaintance at Sea Girt ripened here in Washington when McAdoo became one of the President's advisers. They were constantly together. Miss Nona McAdoo, one of the secretary's daughters who is a year or so younger than Miss Wilson, was her constant companion. They took long automobile drives and walks together and McAdoo was Miss Wilson's favored dancing partner.

True to the Wilson tradition that thirteen, the hoodoo number was their "good luck" numbered, the engagement of Miss Wilson and the Secretary was announced on March 13. That day was also Friday and friends of the Wilson family laughingly observed that an especially fortunate date had been selected for the announcement, from the Wilson standpoint.

Miss Wilson began the preparation of her trousseau immediately following the announcement of her engagement. She shopped in New York for several days, Secretary McAdoo accompanying her several times.

An expert needlewoman herself, she did a lot of work in fixing the trousseau herself, aided by Miss Margaret Wilson. Mrs. Wilson, who suffered a nervous shock from a fall a month or more ago, has been too ill to assist. It was partly because of her indisposition that the private wedding was held. Miss Eleanor, it is understood, had hoped to have a wedding with "all the fuss and feathers," as she was quoted as expressing it, of her sister, Mrs. Sayre.

Not a word was obtainable today as to the bridal trip. One report had it that the couple would take a brief European tour, as did Mr. and Mrs. Sayre, but this was discounted because Secretary McAdoo is just now an extremely busy man, and his presence in Washington is almost imperative, owing to the new currency law going into effect.

Half Minutes With Great Authors of Junior Class In the High School

Miss Ruth Rozell, teacher of Eng-lish in the high school, asked the Junior class to call up the muse at this, the open season for poets, and indite a few lines to him or her, whichever it may be. The following are the results of efforts of some members of the class:

Trials of Young Poet.

In Rushville in Rush county,
The Graham high school stood,
And a lady English teacher
Came here to do us good.

Miss B. for poetry did ask,
Good rhyme and rhythm too
She set us at an awful task,
We've tried it, but could you?

And half of us despaired
And wiped away our tears
For our patience with our lines
Could not overcome our fears.

Lois Bussell.

Spring

Spring, Spring, Spring,
How the woodland echoes ring
With the coming of the Spring,
Now the buds and blossoms swell
Then to winter bid farewell
At the coming of the Spring.

Spring, Spring, Spring,
First the robin builds its nest
Then is followed by the rest.
Twitter, twitter, twitter,
From the woodland everywhere
Come the echoes of the Spring.

Sarah Milhoilin

To a Flower

A lovely flower in a garden grew
Where soft winds fed it with velvet dew
'Twas kissed by the sun, caressed by light
And bloomed, admired from dawn
'till night.

Nearly was golden glow and purple astor tall
The roses twined and clambered
'oer the garden wall

And many gazed on that garden re-cess
'Twas known near and far for its loveliness.

But soon the bright sunlight faded away
To be replaced by the long dark colorless day

And the stately flower soon passed from sight
To spring again after the long dark night.

Henry Todd.

The Circus

The R. H. S. a circus gave,
A circus of rare degree,
For all the animals gay and grave
Were there for a jubilee.

Elephants and snakes by the juniors were shown,
And a real for sure bodiless man!
A woman void of blood and bone
Took part with a three legged man!

The verdant freshmen their very best did try

To give a most wonderful show!
But you know freshmen as well as I
And it simply would not go.

The sophomores gave a minstrel.
They roasted one and all,
In comparison with the juniors
Their success was very small.

The Seniors staged a drama!
How they did act and sing!
But viewed from a junior who was there

It wasn't worth a thing
And Rushville folks who saw the fun
Said the circus was just grand,
But all agreed, yes, everyone
That the Juniors "beat the band."

Marion Scholl.

A Poet's Disappointment

Once I worked on a poem
I worked without a pause
I'll ne'er write another like it.
I don't know why—but, just be-cause.

I tho't all hearers would have cried
But not a tear did fall.

Instead, they all began to laugh
I don't know why—no, not at all.
I resented all this from the first
Was grieved for I wanted applause
I wouldn't have given two cents for myself.

I don't know why—but just because.

But good people don't be foolish.
Don't as a poet seek applause.
You should take my honest advice,
I don't know why—but, just be-cause.

Merle Maupin.

The Snow Baby.

Far away to the Northland,
Where the cold winds always blow,
Where the wee men ride on sledges
Over the drifted snow.

Where the great seals lie in shallows,
Or swim from left to right,
And sea gulls scream and circle
Throughout the long dark night.

Away to this bleak country,
With all its ice and snow.
A white man made a journey,
A few short years ago.

The North Pole was the day dream,
That lured him far from home,
But though his life was cheerless,
He was not there alone.

Inside a tiny snow house,
Where burned a single light,
And skins were hung around the walls

To keep the snow from sight.
A tiny white skinned baby
Lay in a furry bed,
Made of one great big seal skin,
That reached from heels to head.

"Snow Baby," said the wee men,
Should be her northland name
But mother thought that Marie
Would suit her just the same.

The children thronged to see her,
And touch her wee soft hand,
And love her till she left them
For her own fair sunny land.

"Snow Baby," now is grown,
The North Pole dream came true,
And I don't know a better way
To end my tale, do you?

MARIE NEWHOUSE.

Spring.

Spring is coming
Ah! it is here,
The sun shines brightly
And the flowers appear.

The birds in the trees
Are busy all day,
Building their nests
Singing a roundelay.

Birds and flowers and each living thing,
Happy and gay;

Let us each do our best
And be as happy as they.

MABEL McCRACKEN.

Here are the statements of two who have used and proven the merit of the remedy:

Walter Spray, 1011 South Sec-ond Street, Frankfort, Ind.—"Be-fore I took your medicine I suffered a great deal, but since I took the first dose I have not had a bad spell.

I feel it is even more than you claim."
